Numb. 8990.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 18, to Saturday September 22, 1750.

Gibraltar, Auguſt 16.

IN four or five Days Capt. Barrington will ſail from hence in a Man of War for Tetuan, and will carry with him Mr. Pettigrew, his Britannick Majeſty's Conſul General to Morocco, Fez, and the Algarves, in order to treat for the Redemption of all Britiſh Captives which are now in Slavery at thoſe Places.

Petersbourg, Sept. 8. By Letters which the Synod has received from the College eſtabliſhed in Aſia, for the Propagation of Chriſtianity, it appears, that during the ſix firſt Months of the preſent Year, no leſs than 2812 Men, and 2532 Women, had been converted to the Greek Religion. Several Ships belonging to the Ruſſian Fleet are returned into the Port of Cronſlot, where they are ordered to be unrigged and laid up.

Turin, Sept. 12. The Diſputes which have ſubſiſted for ſome Time paſt between the Engliſh Company of Miners, and the Natives, are at length adjuſted entirely to the Satisfaction of the former; to whom his Majeſty has conſented to give a greater Price for their Silver, than he is obliged to do by his Patents, on Condition of their paying the Marquefs de St. Maurice, with whom they were conteſting, a yearly Sum of 5000 Livres.

Genoa, Sept. 12. The new Galley, which has been building here for ſome Time paſt for the King of Sardinia, put to Sea for Nice a few Days ago.

Vienna, Sept. 16. On the 13th Inſtant her Imperial Majeſty ſet out for Nicolsbourg, in order to meet the Emperor, who was on his Return from Bohemia; and Yeſterday in the Afternoon their Imperial Majeſties arrived in perfect Health at their Palace of Schonbrun.

Warſaw, Sept. 16. Advices have been received from Podolia, by which we learn, that the Heyducks had ſurprized the little Town of Kroſno, and had pillaged it entirely; that they had killed ſeveral Jews, and carried away the Governor and ſeveral of the Inhabitants, Priſoners; and that they had afterwards put the Governor to Death.

Copenhagen, Sept. 19. The Royal Family of Denmark is now in perfect Health at Friedensburg, where the uſual Council was held Yeſterday; at the Concluſion of which, M. le Maire, the French Miniſter, preſented to the King, in a private Audience, the Notification of his Court upon the late Delivery of the Dauphineſs, and the Birth of the young Princeſs. M. von Thienen, the new Miniſter from this Court to that of Pruſſia, propoſes to ſet out in ſix or eight Days Time for Berlin, in order to relieve M. Roſencrantz; and 'tis ſaid the Company which M. Thienen commanded, and which now becomes vacant, is or will be given to the Prince of Anhalt Cothen.

Ratisbon, Sept. 21. The Princeſs of Furſtenberg, ſecond Daughter to the Prince of that Name, arrived here Yeſterday with her Mother, Siſters, and a numerous Retinue. She was received at ſome Diſtance by a Party of Horſe, who conducted her to this City; at the Entrance whereof ſhe was received by a Company of Grenadiers, and ſaluted by the Cannon from the Ramparts. The Celebration of this Princeſs's Marriage with the Prince of Tour Taxis, will be performed this Evening with great Magnificence.

Hanover, Sept. 22. The Ratifications of the Treaty of Subſidy lately concluded with the Elector of Bavaria, were exchanged here Yeſterday and to Day by the Britiſh, Auſtrian, Dutch and Bavarian Miniſters.

Berlin, Sept. 22. Yeſterday Morning the King, accompanied by Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, Prince Maurice of Anhalt Deſſau, Prince Eugene of Wirtemberg, and ſeveral General Officers, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, returned hither from Sileſia.

Bruſſels, Sept. 24. They write from Louvain, that there had been great Commotions in that City on Account of the changing of the Magiſtrates, in which five Citizens were killed, who were for and againſt the Choice of the new Burgomaſter; and that though Louvain is the only City where the Citizens have that Power, it was feared they muſt be obliged to give up that ancient Privilege, in order to prevent the fatal Conſequences which uſually attend it. On Wedneſday laſt Prince Charles of Lorrain's Regiment, together with the Huſſars, Ligne's Dragoons, and the Cuiraſſiers of Benthem, were all reviewed by his Serene Highneſs, on the Plains of Lacken; after which they performed ſeveral Exerciſes, Evolutions, and Firings, in his Highneſs's Preſence. General Neuperg is come hither, as 'tis ſaid, to confer with Prince Charles of Lorrain upon the Means to be made uſe of for the better Security of the Fortifications of this Country, and to provide every Thing neceſſary for that Purpoſe. Since the Arrival of this General, ſeveral Conferences have been held, independent of the others which are held daily for the Improvement of Commerce, and other Affairs of this Country. By Letters from Paris of the 21ſt Inſtant we are informed, that the Affair of the Clergy was at length ended, greatly to their Diſadvantage. On the 15th a grand Council was held, in which it was determined, that the Court ſhould give up no Point, and that the King's Will ſhould be obeyed; and the Coun

[Price Two-pence.]

Count de St. Florentin was ordered to wait on the Aſſembly of the Clergy, to acquaint them with theſe Determinations. When he came thither, he began by laying before them a Letter de Cachet, exhorting them to agree to the giving of the 1500,000 Livres a Year, which was demanded of them by Way of Free Gift; and in all Things to conform to the King's Declaration: After which he laid before them an Arret of the Council of State to the ſame Effect. As theſe were Things the Clergy did not expect, great Debates aroſe concerning them, which ended in not agreeing to the King's Declaration. This occaſioned Count Florentin to produce a ſecond Letter de Cachet, which he had brought with him in Caſe the firſt was not agreed to, ordering the Aſſembly to ſeparate by the 20th Inſtant at fartheſt, and that the Biſhops ſhould ſet out the next Day for their reſpective Dioceſes. Whereupon the Biſhops entered their Proteſt againſt the King's Declaration, refuſing to give either the 1500,000 Livres, or any Account of the yearly Income of their Revenues and Eſtates. On the 20th Inſtant they aſſembled again, and having cenſured ſome irreligious Books, broke up their Aſſembly; and on the 21ſt they all ſet out for their reſpective Dioceſes; ſo that nothing now remains, but for the King to give Orders for the ſeizing of their Temporalities, in order to puniſh them for their Diſobedience.

Hambourg, Sept. 23. We learn by Letters from Copenhagen of the 9th Inſtant, that a great Fire had broke out at Stromſtadt in Norway, which had burnt down upwards of 100 Houſes, beſides ſeveral Warehouſes filled with Merchandizes, which made the Loſs very conſiderable.

Hambourg, Sept. 25. The French Marechal de Camp, M. de la Touche, and his Nephew M. de Cointel, who had been detained by contrary Winds ſome Weeks, and were more than once driven into Port again before they could make their Paſſage, arrived here from Stockholm the 19th Inſtant, and ſet out the 24th for Hanover.

Hague, Sept. 29. The States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland will open their Aſſembly Tomorrow, for which Purpoſe moſt of the Members are already arrived.

Whitehall, September 22.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Henry Harris, William Adams, James Ramſden, and Henry Yelverton the Elder, Eſqrs. together with Philip Medows, Eſq; in the room of Thomas Gordon, Eſq; deceaſed, to be his Majeſty's Commiſſioners for granting Licences for the ſelling and uttering by Retail all and every or any Kind of Wine or Wines whatſoever, in any City, Town or Place within that Part of Great Britain called England, the Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, September 22.
